MAY INDICT WITNESSES.

Minneapolis Grand Jury, Investigating Day Killing, Is Indignant.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL. Minneapolis, Minn., Dec. 10.-Indignant because of the hesitation of witnesses to tell all of the bestation of winceses tell all of the story regarding the recent killing of Millionaire Leonard Day in a fight over a woman at the West Hotel two weeks ago, the Grand Jury, now making an investigation of the affair, has intimated plainly that if the men who are holding back part of the story do not reveal all they know several indictments will be returned against the persons who were present at the time of the killing.

From the first the claim has been made that Frank Hamilton, the newspaper man accused by the Corcher's Jury of having laffleted the stab wound that resolted in Day's death, is being made a scapegoat for other men, and that the members of the Grand Jury take stock in this theory is now shown by their action in issuing the warning referred to.

Up to the present time many witnesses have been impossible to get a straight story of the killing. Several of the young women wanted as witnesses have been impossible for grand Jurymen, who are said to be talking of holding the case open long enough to get these witnesses, no matter where they may be. tell all of the story regarding the recent

ALLEGATIONS IN THE CAPEN DIVORCE SUIT.

Husband Charges That His Wife Threw Her Wedding Ring at Him and Attempted Suicide.

SCENES IN PUBLIC PLACES

The Petition Recites an Encounter at the Planters Hotel and a Flirtation at Faust's Restaurant.

Execution was issued yesterday in the divorce suit of Wallace C. Capen against Florence Lucas Capen, and the papers in the case were taken to St. Louis County, to be served on the defendant, who is staying at the residence of her father, Robert J. Lacas, near Normandy.

The public in the case, which was withdrawn from the Circuit Clerk's office when it was filed last Saturday, was returned yesterday. Mr. Capen alleges that his wife attempted to commit suicide last Wednesday, the day on which they separated. The specific allegations of the petition are as follows:

That the defendant has upon divers occasions, publicly and in the presence of other persons, reprimanded, criticised and abused the plaintiff without cause or provocation; that during defendant's visit to relatives and friends of the plaintiff at Block Island, R. L. in the month of July last, the de-tendant called plaintiff a dee and said that R. L. In the month of July last, the defendant called plaintiff a deg, and said that she hoped the "dirty dog" would stay away from her; that during the said visit plaintiff wrote to her, admentshing her as to certain duties and discretions, and that she telegraphed plaintiff that she would do as she pleased, and for him to let her alone; that the said that she did not core for him. that she said that she did not care for him and did not love him; that she refused to answer telegrams and letters sent by him to her while she was East last July and August; that she threatened to commit sul-cide when he spoke to her about her conduct; that in the month of October she be-came angry with him and took from het hand her wedding ring which he had given her and threw it at him; that she struck him October 20, 1960, at the Planters Hote care with an oyster fork and upbraided and abused him, so that the epithets were heard by others; that on October 21, 1906, at Faust's restautant, while at dinner with plaintiff and other persons who were guests of plaintiff and defendant, the defendant firred with Julius A. Boyer, who sat at another table, and only desisted when the plaintiff threatened to take the defendant and leave the restaurant; that on December 5, 1999, the defendant at their home, abused plaintiff and applied vile epithets to him and struck him in the face with her hand; that on December 5, 1900, the defendant threatened to commit suicide, and attempted to carry said threat into execution in the presence of persons other than the plaintiff and defendant.

Robert J. Lucus, Mrs. Capen's father, and with whom she is now making her home, said last night that neither he nor his daughter had a word to say about the alle-gations in the suit filed by M. Capen. "We knew what charges would be made before the suit was filed." said Mr. Lucas. But he refused to say anything further.

Military Duty Disregarded at University of Alabama.

Tuscaloosa, Ala., Dec. 10.-An uprising of students is being investigated at the University of Alabama. Friday morning about 1:30 o'clock disorder was begun in the bar-1:30 o'clock disorder was begun in the bar-racks and Commandant West called for President Bowers. The stairways to the dormitory had been obstructed with barbed wire and it was impossible for anyone to ascend. President Bowers quieted the dis-order. There was shooting of firearms, fire-works and cannon crackers. A Court of In-quiry being unable to secure any testimony from the students, referred the whole mat-ter to the faculty. At the faculty.

At the faculty meeting the students asked for relief from tour walking, which they claim to be a torture, and other strict military features of discipline.

Yesterday and to-day the students refused to assemble at the military calls. All military duty is disregarded.

New York, Dec. 10.-The action of the New York, Dec. 10.—The action of the Stock Exchange in dropping the $8,40,600 stock issue of the Peoria, Decatur and Evansville Raliway Company continues to be discussed in Wall street. William W. Balawin, who represents a number of stockholders who are contesting their claims in the United States courts says:

"This action of the exchange does not come to us as a surprise. We have been aware for some time that such a move was meditated by the parties interested in the transfer of the property of the raliroad to the illinois Central. The Illinois Central is said to have purchased the road under a decree of foreclosure of the first mortgage. The validity of the decree and of the purchase was at once vigorously assailed by a strong organization of stockholders.

"Appeals were taken to the Circuit Court of Appeals were taken to the Circuit Court of the United States, and will, if successful, result in the compete overthrew of the sale and purchase and the restoration of the company's property to the stockholders. We regard the striking of the stock from the list as a shrewd move in this direction, but wholly immaterial as far as the rights of the stockholders or the continuation of the Illigation is concerned." "Gentlemen: In reference to your Malt Whiskey, I must say that it is excellent. I have had it in use for nearly one year, and in that time my family has been greatly benefited, especially my eldest daughter, who was always in delicate health. She is over sixteen years of age, and is strong and hearty. I have given her three tablespoonfuls a day. It was for her that I wanted the consumption cure. I think it was lucky that I got it, for the mother died of consumption when the daughter was six years of age, and the physician said the child would not live to be over four teen years of age. Now she's over sixteen and the doctor is dead. He died of consumption of the lungs. In conclusion, I will say that your DUFFY'S PURE MALT WHISKEY will save many lives if the people will take it. Interstate Commerce Commission's Hearing on St. Louis Business Men's Complaint.

Discrimination in Rates Alleged Against This Gateway-B. & O. S.W. Annual Meeting-Tennessee Central - Notes.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL. Washington, Dec. 10.-The Interstate Commerce Commission to-day began an extended hearing of the St. Louis Business Men's League, in the matter of their complain against the Santa Fe and twenty other railroads against alleged discriminations in carload and part carload shipments of freight. The league comprises 2,000 or more business men and firms doing business in St. Louis. Their complaint sets forth: "First, that the rates as published on classes and commodities, which ordinarily move in both carloads and less than carloads, are unjust relatively and bear unduly upon the shipper, in less than carloads, so much so that many St. Louis merchants and manufacturers, in various lines of trade, such as drugs, paints, groceries, grocers' sundries, hardware, plumbers' supplies and wagon material who formerly enjoyed share of the vast trade west of the one hundred and fifteenth meridian have been prohibited from competing for this trade since the adoption of this unjust basis of rates; others have continued in the trade without a reasonable profit frequently at a loss hoping for a readingstment that will be fair alike to the wholesalers on the Pacific Coast and elsewhere, Second-That many of the rates in effect prior to June 25, 1898, were unjust to the wholesale merchants of St. Leuis and the Middle West, and gave the wholesale dealers on the Pacific Coast an unreasonable advantage, to the detriment not only of St. Louis merchants, but of Chicago merchants and others, similarly situated, as well as rethe detriment of every buyer in small quantities on the Pacific Coast. On June 25, 188. TWENTY LINES ARE INVOLVED. this unjust discrimination was greatly increased, as shown by the tariff published.

MISSING ST. LOUIS BOY IS LOCATED AT SEDALIA.

Willie Buchalter Disappeared in September and Is Roughing It.

HE'S NOT COMING HOME

Willie Buchalter, who ran away from his parents' home, at No. 1165 Biddle street, September 18, was located in Scialia by Detective W. C. Weber of this city last Friday. The boy's mother, Mrs. Mary Buchalter, has been under the care of a physician, having been prostrated by worry over her lost child. She says now that she knows he is safe, she does not care to have him brought home against his will, though he will be welcome at any time that he comes of his own volution.

While told the detective that he would Willie told the detective that he would leave Sedalia for Kensas City in the near future. He expects to get employment there in the packing-houses of the Swift company. He said, further, that he had $\foxed{S}$ with him, and that as soon as he could save enough he would pay back to his mother $16 which he owes her.

When Willie ran away from home he took from the family copboard $35 which he had earned in sweatshops. This he had introst-
